

NSG 341 - Care of Infants, Children and Adolescent

Addresses nursing care for clients/patients from birth through adolescents who are well, acutely ill, chronically ill, and disabled. The main perspective is that of children within the context of families. In addition, a transcultural perspective is adopted where various ethnic groups are examined in terms of their health and parenting practices. Nursing measures to insure health promotion, disease prevention, and health restoration are all emphasized.
