

NSG 406 - Mental Health Nursing in a Multicultural Society

Emphasis on transcultural mental health care to individuals; analysis of wide variability in expression of symptoms, interpretations, explanations, and expectations associated with mental health and mental illness; exploration of the potential that interactive processes and communication have for facilitating effective transcultural mental health care.

Credits: 3